

16th Annual

Systems CHANGE

Conference & Teacher of the Year Banquet

October 14-16, 2015

Cedar Shore Resort - Chamberlain, SD

systemschange.midwestmaple.org

Kathleen Cushman is an educator and journalist who has specialized in the lives and learning of youth for the past 26 years. As co-founder of the nonprofit What Kids Can Do, she has collaborated with adolescent learners nationwide on eleven books, including the best-selling Fires in the Bathroom series.

Kathleen calls on the voices of students to explain what sparks their motivation and engages them in the work that leads to mastery.

Denise Ryan is an author with a master's degree in business. After earning millions for clients in the corporate world, she realized she had a talent and passion for firing people up.

Uplifting, humorous and informative, Denise's keynote will address relevant workplace issues such as dealing with change, getting along with others, staying motivated and motivating others. Her infectious enthusiasm will motivate and challenge everyone.

Key Features:

- Meals are included
- Full-day pre-conference workshops
- Discounted rates for teams of 3 or more
- Graduate credit and DOE contact hours
- Free book of your choice from onsite bookstore
- Breakout sessions on a variety of relevant topics
- Includes the Teacher of the Year Banquet, featuring announcement of the 2016 State Teacher of the Year.

Motivation
& Mastery